2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

It is one of our prime endeavors to ensure rigor and transparency in the internal assessments. There is a set criteria for making the assessment. Weightage is given to the marks obtained by the students in the house tests, class tests timely completion of assignments and attendance in the class, as laid down by the university. To maintain transparency, the answer sheets of house exam are shown to the students and the attendance of lectures and marks obtained in house exams are conveyed through letters to the parents after each of them. Every month the documents showing the attendance of lectures are shown to the students and even got signed from them. Parent-teacher principal meets are held in an informal manner to get their feedback and suggestion.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

The mechanism to deal with examination related grievances works with the idea of transparency, keeping in view the time and efficiency. At the institutional level one house test is conducted in each semester. Evaluation of answer sheets is completed within seven days and the results are published within 2 weeks of the conduct of exam. Answer sheets are shown to students. The total is also checked by the students and unmarked question, if any, is marked. It is ensured that the students feel satisfied with the evaluation. The university has launched examination Grievances Monitoring System (EGMS), 2013. There is a provision for reevaluation where the answer book is checked by two examiners. Total is again checked by the special staff on duty for this purpose. Hence, the grievances are redressed.

7.1.11 - Institution celebrates / organizes national and international commemorative days, events and festivals

Our college celebrates National and International days enthusiastically every year. All staff members and students gather in the college to celebrate these days. Every culture has number of festivals and celebration has become a vital activity. Celebration of cultural and constitutional festivals is integral part of college's co-curricular activities. Throughout session different days are celebrated by students with guidance of teachers which help them to know about different cultures and to cognitively imagine India as a nation Republic day is celebrated every year on 26th January in the college with great enthusiasm and pride. It is a day to remember when India's constitution came into force on 26 January 1950 completing the country's transition toward becoming an independent republic. Independence Day is also celebrated on 15th August in the college with great enthusiasm. It is celebrated on 15th August commemorating the nation independence from United Kingdom on 15th August 1947. It is a day when all staff members and students pay homage to their leaders and those who fought for India's freedom in the past.
